Mr. Arty Selkowitz, Chairman of The Mill River Collaborative will be the Keynote Speaker at the 2008 Stamford Land Conservation Trust Annual Meeting.

Tuesday, November 11th at 6:00 pm
Stamford Museum and Nature Center
39 Scofieldtown Road, Stamford, CT

Mr. Selkowitz will discuss the plans for the Mill River Park and Greenway in downtown Stamford. Join us and hear how this exciting project brings the values of open space from our neighborhoods and woods right into the most developed part of our City. Discover how this project is providing momentum for more protected open space in Stamford. Mr. Selkowitz will be available for questions following his talk. Light refreshments and beverages will be served.

We welcome all members, neighbors, and new friends!
